

Look sharp eyesight and at work drivers

Addressing the risk of poor driver eyesight is a crucial aspect of fleet safety policy and procedure.

In this workshop delegates will hear from experts on the risks associated with driving and poor eyesight, and effective strategies to combat this risk such as comprehensive driver eyesight testing.

A best practice case study will demonstrate how a company successfully implemented measures to tackle poor driver eyesight.

Kindly sponsored by

DATE: Tuesday 24 January 2012

VENUE: Bristol, UK

TIME: 12.30pm- 4pm

Delegates will receive FREE resources on relevant topics, including guidance, posters and leaflets

Speakers:

- Franziska Rauscher - Senior Researcher - Leipzig University Hospital
- Suzanne Randall - Corporate Account Manager - Specsavers
- Jon Sellors - Group Head of Thought Leadership - RSA

£80 + VAT for Brake subscribers (£90 + VAT for non-subscribers).

Register TODAY!

"Brake's workshops are absolutely superb and an essential learning tool."

Gerry Webster, UK road safety manager - Christian Salvesen

For more information or to book online visit www.fleetsafetyforum.org/events
Contact Brake at admin@brake.org.uk or call +44 (0)1484 559909

An initiative by

and its divisions

Refunds cannot be made for any cancellations made within 3 weeks of an event, but replacement delegates are welcome.
All cancellations and changes to delegate names must be made in writing.